

Artventure at Guildford Station

Tom Sliwinski's amazing train pictures are now exhibited in the tunnel between Platforms 5 and 6. This collection of 7 pictures featuring trains and train stations has never been exhibited together before. If you visit Tom's pictures, make sure you check out Julie Hoyle's fantastic, recently unveiled mural in the tunnel as well.

It is your last chance to see our Nature's Treasures collection in the waiting room on Platform 3 at Guildford Station. They are on display until the middle of May.

The Nature's Treasures project was supported by Daisy. Their contribution made it possible to set up our own photography department and offer the participants interesting photo projects on a regular basis.

Australian Collection at the Electric Theatre

We share the exhibition space with Gosden House School, who brought amazing jungle themed pictures that go perfectly with our aboriginal motifs. The exhibition is on until 25th May.

Our Webshop is Open Now

Please visit our new webshop. We have a few interesting items available featuring designs by our participants. If you want to have a mug, tea towel, tote bag or notebook with a special design by one of our participants please get in touch with Mariann. (manager@art-venture.co.uk)

Rooted in Guildford

Artventure has an exhibition of 15 pieces from our 'Trees' collection during the 'Rooted in Guildford' Arts and Mental Health festival in the lobby of G-Live in May. Please find enclosed a copy of the program with our flyer that has all the information about our exhibition. Please note that G-Live is not always open during the day, just for events usually after 5pm and Saturdays. Please get in touch with them before you plan to visit.

Surrey Artists' Open Studios – 11th -25th June
